Jack the Ripper Walk on Thursday, 3rd November 2016

This visit has been organised by MC Black.

Please check that you have consulted the latest draft of this flyer before departing – see <http://www.ioprems.co.uk/> Current Events Q4 2016.

Description: A two-hour tour of the locations associated with the murders committed by Jack The Ripper between 31st August and 9th November 1888.

Be transported back to Whitechapel of that terrible autumn and walk in the footsteps of one of the most notorious murderers, re-live each murder it happened and be presented with the evidence and the suspects. Can you solve the murders on your walk through one of Victorian London's bloodiest episodes?

Our walking tour will be led by historian Mark Smith, formerly Curator of Firepower – the Museum of the Royal Regiment of Artillery – and the Militaria expert on Antiques Roadshow. He is a distant relation of one of the suspects!

The Coffee House is about 20 metres from the new entrance/exit of Whitechapel station; Court Street runs north a short distance on the western side of the station.
