

Institute of Physics – L & S E Branch – Retired Members Section

AT HOME – WATER
THURSDAY 5 January 2017

This meeting has been organised by George Freeman

PROGRAMME

Chairman Mike Quinton

10:00 Registration and coffee

10:50 Welcome and notices

11:00 Simon Starling, Thames Water Water management in the Thames Valley.

11:45 Stephen Hardwick, Imperial College Climate change and the effect on our weather.

12:30 Prof Jason Reese, University of Edinburgh Desalination using nanotubes.

13:15 Lunch

14:30 Joe Pecorelli, Zoological Society of London Working towards healthy rivers in London

15:15 Roger Squires, London Canal Museum The history of Inland Waterways.

16:00 Stephen Hall, National Oceanography Centre, Southampton; Invisibility under water and drones

16:45 Tea

Venue: Read Lecture Theatre (level 5), Sherfield Building, Imperial College, London SW7 2AZ
Registration and coffee on level 5 outside the theatre.

Costs: Free but £27 with lunch (free for speakers)

This is a London & SE Branch meeting and is open to visitors and the public free of charge. Please register on the London and SE website http://www.iop.org/activity/branches/south_east/lse/

If you want lunch, which is a REMS event, please use this same link.

Lunch will be in the Sherfield building in the Queen's Tower Room on the ground floor. It is a hot sit down buffet with wine.