

From Arcadia to Egg Cups – a Walk in Camden Town
Thursday 12 November 2009

This visit has been organised by Kate and Mike Quinton.

This will be a walk among many interesting buildings within a relatively small area. Please wear strong and comfortable shoes and come prepared for inclement weather. Attractions will include St Pancras Old Church and Churchyard, Working Men's College, Sainsbury's, Elephant House (!), the Grand Union Canal, an unusual estate agent's premises, and an Odeon.

Meet at Costa Coffee by Mornington Crescent U-Ground Station ready for 11.00am start.

Getting there – underground train (Northern Line Charing Cross Branch) or bus

Lunch arrangements to be finalised – probably in Camden High Street

Timetable: meet 10.30 to 11.00. Walk continues after lunch and will end at Camden Town Underground Station.

Cost: £2.00. The numbers will be restricted to 25 to fit the pavements and so that you can hear your in-house guides.

Contacts – Kate's mobile number 07908156160

Late arrivals – contact Humphrey Lyttleton? No. Try Kate above.