

AT HOME – A MISCELLANY

THURSDAY 13 January 2011

This meeting has been organised by George Freeman

10.30 Coffee

Chairman Mike Quinton

11.00 Welcome and notices

11.05 Michael Callaghan Basic training and flying in the RAF to include first unaccompanied jet flight

11.50 Tony Manning Hertfordshire Rivers and Navigations

12.35 Derrick Grover Steganography and cryptography for hiding PIN numbers and other things

13.05 LUNCH

14.30 David Pye Left Handed Beetles
For an introduction see Physics World August 2010, p52.

15.15 Richard Hartley The Worshipful Company of Instrument Makers and my year as Master

16.00 Michelle Fountain (EMR) To Bee or not to Bee
Issues facing pollinating insects; the work of EMR on black currant pollination; a year of bee keeping – a beginner's point of view

16.45 TEA and CLOSE

Institute of Physics, 76 Portland Place, W1B 1NT.

Nearest underground stations are Oxford Circus and Regent's Park.

This meeting is open to visitors. Please contact John Belling, john.a.belling.secrems@gmail.com, 07986 379935, 42 Cunningham Park, Harrow, Middx, HA1 4QJ, if you wish to attend.

Costs are £27 or £6 without lunch